Please note below general information about the Faculty House.

- A first-floor conference room is available for your meeting needs.
- Heating/air may be adjusted as needed. However, please set the heat back to 68 upon departure in the winter and the AC back to 72 upon departure in the summer.
- Children/babies are generally not permitted to stay in the Faculty House.
- The Faculty House is smoke-free / pet-free and rooms are cleaned weekly
- A full kitchen is available if you wish to bring in your own food to prepare. It is a good idea to label your food with your name. Please dispose of any unused food from the refrigerator at check out.
- Please note recycling instructions on kitchen board and make use of this service.
- Please turn off your alarm clock settings when you check out and close the bedroom door behind you.
- Please place all used towels in the clothes hamper when you check out so that they can be easily gathered by the cleaning staff.
- Complimentary coffee and condiments are provided in the kitchen.
(No coffee pots allowed in rooms)
- Each room has a private bath with hair dryers provided.
- Because of Health Department guidelines, ice is NOT provided in the freezer, but you may use the ice dispenser in the door.
- Handicapped facilities are available.
- A furnished front porch, deck, and patio are available for your needs.
- Early check-out: Short-term guests must give 24 hour notice or a full night's stay will be charged. Long-term guests must give notice before their billing cycle begins or a full month's rent will be charged.
- Guests are responsible for damaged items, and agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless NC State, its trustees, officers, employees, and agents from liability for copyright infringement of any kind arising from or proximately caused by the use of the provided Internet service.

If you have any problems during your stay, please call Randy Keller at 704-785-5499.

Welcome and we hope you enjoy your stay!
